To become an automotive mechanic, you must gain an Automotive Mechanic qualification. If you get a Grade-2 national qualification, you will be able to work in Japan! If you want to help the technologies I learn at Nissan to become widespread in Myanmar.
1. I like that the teachers are very kind and friendly, and I can ask them anything.
2. I want to build a factory in Myanmar.
3. I'm working hard on my daily classes. I love cars, so my course is lots of fun.
4. I'm studying hard for my national qualifications. There is a Nissan Dealer Group company in Myanmar, so my future is secure.
5. There are many really caring teachers who make it easy for you to study.

The Nissan Group provides 3 pillars of support for peace of mind.

1. Pre-admission support
   You can talk with us about entrance exams, academic requirements, tuition fees—anything at all! We also offer a special pre-admission seminar for successful applicants to prepare you for college.
   Pre-admission seminar

2. Support at college
   Exchange events
   Japanese language proficiency program
   Leave everything to our trustworthy staff assigned to look after international students!
   Total support from entrance to graduation!
   Job-focused curriculum
   Work performed by automotive mechanics
   Manly diagnosis, inspection, servicing, disassembly, assembly, repairs and maintenance included. Most automotive mechanics work in repair shops and dealerships. Today, more and more non-Japanese automotive mechanics are being employed in Japan.
   Nissan is driving the cars of tomorrow to achieve a safe and sustainable society with zero CO2 emissions and zero traffic fatalities.

3. Job search support
   Job search consultants
   Touring Nissan Dealerships
   Studying job search techniques
   Many other programs
   Class teacher
   We will help you in your entire journey of finding work!
